Congregational Prayer*(Time for personal prayer)*

Abba, Father, You are the God who sees me and knows me, and You are Eternal. You are holy, yet You made a way for me to approach You like a Father. How great is Your faithfulness, Holy God. You are invisible, but I see You with eyes of faith.

I praise You, my Heavenly Father, for being King of kings and Lord of lords.

With my whole heart, I praise You as the God who heals, the One who provides, and my Faithful Shepherd. You are Messiah, my Great High Priest, my Redeemer. You died to set me free; You rose again and gave me victory over death. You give me hope and joy for not only this earthly life, but also for the life to come.

Lord, teach me to offer You a heart of thanksgiving, praise, and true joy in all my daily experiences of life.

Jesus, I want to be like You who obeyed the Father without complaint. You embraced the chains of humanity when You walked this earth. Give me Your attitude of humility and thankful acceptance of the place you have planted me in order to fulfill Your will.

Teach me the power of a thankful heart, a giving spirit, and a faith-filled walk with You.

Lord, we thank You for putting us in this time and this place, for here we are surrounded by opportunities to serve You, following Your commands and fulfilling Your will for our lives. Help us always be joyful in whatever each day brings, knowing that You are in control.

Lord, we praise You and magnify Your name, most especially for the gift of Your dear Son, in whose name we pray as He taught us:
