Congregational Prayer

(Time for personal prayer)

Father, Your power and glory are so great, yet your love and mercy are so kind that we can be bold to come before You now with our praise to You and our thanks for all that You have done and continue to do in our lives.

Be with us, Lord, in every moment, in every trial and temptation, in every joy and sorrow, in every loss and gain in our human lives.

God of healing, God of wholeness, we bring our brokenness, our sinfulness, our fears and despair and lay them at your feet. God of healing, God of wholeness, we hold out hearts and hands, minds and souls to feel your touch and know the peace that only you can bring.

Grant us forgiveness for all our sins and bring us a new spirit in You.

Grant us faith and confidence that here, broken lives are made whole. Your love sees failings and forgives. Your love feels pain and wipes away our tears. Your love knows grief and comforts the sorrowful. Your love sees sin and still loves the sinner.

Forgive us when we fail to live lives that reflect your love. Forgive us the many times when we take for granted all that you have done for us.

Transform us, through your Spirit, and empower us to serve you this day and all days ahead. Give us resolve to turn from our sin and back to You, to Your love and forgiveness, so that we may always seek to be people after Your own heart.

We know that You bless those who seek Your face and walk in Your ways.

God of power and might, through the blood of Your own dear Son, cleanse us from all unrighteousness and bring us the joy of Your forgiveness. Your mercy is possible through the sacrifice on the cross by Jesus, in whose name we dare to pray ... (The Lord's Prayer follows)
