Congregational Prayer

Eternal Father, God of Light, in the midst of the darkness before creation, You already knew every life You would create, every feature of every face, every beautiful part of every creature that would be infused with life from Your holy breath.

Thank You, Everlasting God, for the gifts of life, of talents, of abilities—all for the glory of Your Name.

Lord, You join us together as the body of Christ, children of the Triune God, and You make us bold to claim that right as Your children and brothers and sisters to each other.

Unify us, Lord, as one body in one Spirit with You.

Use our gifts to serve You and each other in love and holiness. Grant us a passionate desire to serve each other in unity and understanding, and the opportunities to use our gifts to build each other up.

Lord, help us grow together as the body of Christ and reflect Your love to all the world.

Your love unifies us in one purpose; may our love for each other, and for You, unify us in love.

Help us reach out to those who feel they live on the edges of acceptance: the poor, the unemployed, the handicapped. Give us a God-like love to bring them into the circle of the body of Christ.

Even now, as the unified body, grant us grace and mercy as we join in the prayer that Your dear Son, Jesus Christ, taught us to pray:
