Congregational Prayer

(Time for silent Prayer)

Holy God, we come together as your people searching for You in this sacred space. In this hour of worship let thankfulness sink deep and joy spring up.

We lift our hearts and souls and minds to the God of our creation, for we are wholly yours, O Father, God Eternal.

We give you thanks, O God, for the gift of life itself. You knew us before we were formed in the womb, and you know every part of our being, our thinking, and our feeling.

Our lives are in your hands, O Lord, and we offer up ourselves to your glory and for your service.

We thank you, Creator God, for the gift of this bountiful land and abundant resources. Give us wisdom to use them wisely and well, so that our children's children may also enjoy the bounty of your creation.

Give us discretion, Lord, to protect this earth and the gifts around us that make our lives so rich and full.

We thank you for another bountiful harvest from the fields and safety for those who reap it. How blessed we are by You, O God!

We thank you for our families who celebrate this bounty with us, O Lord!

Most of all, Holy Father, we thank you for the Good News that you gave and which is now present among us. Even in our brokenness and our separation from You.

Thank You, God, for loving us and making us Children of God, through the sacrifice and resurrection of Your dear Son, in whose name we pray: (The Lord's Prayer follows)
